Presentation

Students present their findings to the class, highlighting key points from their analysis and discussing any challenges they faced during the assignment.

Evaluation Criteria

- Accuracy and completeness of the data retrieval and alignment procedure
- Correct application and execution of Hyphy selection analyses.
- Depth of interpretation and biological insights drawn from the results.
- Clarity and coherence of the written report and oral presentation.